Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 30-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-29 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 30-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fingerhut, US 6,418,129. Unimed Pharm Chem de Mexico

Regarding claim 30, Fingerhut discloses an arrangement for controlling installations and/or processes, comprising:

parts of an existing mobile communications network being used for the transmission of the respective data and arrangements are provided for the exchange of information between a dedicated network and elements of the mobile communication network which are participating in the information flow within the mobile communication network, with at least one coupling device being provided to permit an exchange of information between at least one location in the mobile communication network and a location in the dedicated network, wherein said coupling device has devices which can directly or indirectly select information elements from the information flow of the mobile communication network in a controlled manner that conforms to the protocol (col. 4, lines 46-66) or it can directly or indirectly insert information elements into the information flow of the mobile communication network in a controlled manner or it can replace corresponding elements of the information flow the mobile communication network (col. 5, line 20 to col. 6, line 53 and col. 9, line 64).

Regarding claim 31, Fingerhut discloses the arrangement according to claim 30, wherein as a coupling point of the mobile communication network to the dedicated in the mobile communication network, a unit is provided which has at least the function of a home location register and/or an authentication center (col. Col. 5, lines 36-60).
